Koschel Simpson Mattner has committed to adding value to our clients and identifying unique opportunities for you in 2012. Here is one of your first.

The program is developed and presented by someone regarded by many people as a business legend. We can absolutely vouch for that view as well. His name is Paul Dunn. He is a stunning and inspirational speaker.

Right now an estimated 156,000 businesses worldwide use his programs to create and run extraordinary businesses. He's created a revolutionary way of doing business.

Paul is flying in from Singapore to conduct this exclusive business-building program we've arranged for you.

Just read what some of the people said who saw Paul recently in the UK:

- This was like having the curtains opened for me.
- Your program has had a profound effect on me. I have barely slept thinking about all the ideas. I am feeling very privileged and humbled to have been at the program.
- There's no way this felt like 3 hours — like everyone else in the program, I was WOWed.
- I truly believe that you're setting the tone for a new style of business that businesses and customers will see as an idea whose time is now.

Paul's program for you is specifically 'punchy', hard-hitting and full of brilliant insights for you — insights for you to use instantly. You'll instantly 'get':

- why advertising is the fee you pay for being unremarkable
- how to set your business apart in the simplest of ways so that you become the 'go-to' business
- what new research calls 'the most profound shift in attitude we've ever measured'
- how to embed generosity right into the DNA of your business
- how simple it actually is to add in 'WOW' to your business and the huge difference that makes
- how to have a huge and powerful new sense of purpose in your business and the absolutely stunning impact that has

And much, much more. This is truly a fast-paced, 'no-hype zone' program. People rave about the experience of being with Paul. Former UK Entrepreneur of the Year and author of Amazon 5-Star rated book 'Stress proof your business and your Life', Steve Pipe, puts it like this:

"I have been booking big name professional business speakers for the last 10 years. And having spent more than £250,000 in the process I can confidently say that Paul Dunn is the best speaker I have ever seen. And it is not just his presentation style that is stunning, his content is too. I have seen his ideas and presentations transform the results of hundreds of UK businesses, including my own. So if you want better results, you simply must go to this seminar."
